History of the Second World War

United Kingdom Civil Series

OIL

A Study of War-time Policy and Administration

Published as an independent study to illuminate war-time administrative experience, this latest volume in the series of Civil Histories of the Second World War is a record of setbacks as well as achievement. It spotlights some ill-fated decisions and a number of instances of disagreement between administrators.

The frictions are examined as well as the comradeship that grew up between officials of different nations. Petrol rationing in Britain is critically examined. The emergency pipeline system built across Britain is described and the book records the failure of the ambitious Pluto project to supply petrol to the Allied forces on the Continent by pipelines laid under the Channel. There are also chapters dealing with oil supply in the Middle East, and India and Burma.

Across the Piave

A personal account of the British forces in Italy 1917–1919
by Norman Gladden

This illustrated title offers a unique view of an off-beat aspect of the First World War. Dr Gladden relates his vivid account of a little-known campaign to an overall picture of the war as a whole.

'An excellent résumé . . .' ROYAL ENGINEERS JOURNAL 65p (71½p)

With a Machine Gun to Cambrai

One of the few personal narratives of the First World War to have been written by an ordinary private soldier. George Coppard went to France as a very young volunteer and served as a machine-gunner until 1917, when he was badly wounded. His book is a vivid and racy account of his experiences on the Western front.

'A remarkable book . . .' THE TIMES 30p (36½)

Tommy Atkins' Children

by Col N T St John Williams

Relates the fascinating but little-known story of the Army's education of its children over the past 300 years. The story begins in 1675 with the school at Tangier provided for the Garrison's soldiers and children by Charles II, when he received Tangier as part of his wife's dowry, and ends with the formation of the tri-Service Organisation established in the Army Department with a world-wide responsibility for the education of all service children.

'. . . a story of magnificent concern for the education of the children of Service personnel . . . packed with fascinating extracts from the Army's professional records . . .' CHILD EDUCATION £1·75 (£1·88)

Medical Services in War

The medical lessons of war have lasting value, and the ways in which the Medical Services, both military and civilian, coped with the problems presented by the Second World War are of interest to all those engaged in the practice of medicine and of particular value to those concerned with the medical services of their country. In this volume, the twentieth and penultimate in the United Kingdom series devoted to the medical history of the war, the official historians of Canada, Australia, New Zealand, India and the United Kingdom have collaborated in producing a guide to the war-time Commonwealth Medical Services as a whole. The several Commonwealth Governments have already published independently volumes dealing with their respective rôles. Here for the first time the lessons they learned are brought together in concise form—the distillation of a rich and world-wide experience of what could be done to reduce human wastage, by preventing or minimising disease and restoring the sick and wounded. All the resources of medicine and science were harnessed to these ends, resulting in a rapid growth of knowledge, application of new techniques and intensity of collaboration over a wide field.

Today's officer has little time for amateurs. A professional himself he looks for professionalism in others.

That's why so many officers now have an account with Holt's Branch of Williams & Glyn's Bank. Holt's have been Army Agents for over 160 years and Royal Air Force Agents since the service was born. They know the money, insurance, tax and pensions problems of servicemen from long experience. And their specialist advice to help handle these problems is unique.

Now they can also offer the full civilian services of a go-ahead national bank – with a hot line to expert investment, taxation and insurance departments and to the merchant banking skills of Williams, Glyn & Co. In the City.

NOTES

1. This edition of the Army List Part I is corrected generally to include promotions, appointments, etc. promulgated on or before 14 February, 1972. The detail in respect of United Kingdom Commands (cols. 78 to 117) applies from 1 April, 1972.

The Gradation List

2. The Gradation list shows names of regular officers of the British Army under their substantive/brevet rank and in order of seniority. The names of regular officers of the quartermaster category, Gurkha commissioned officers and Queen's Gurkha officers, and regular officers of the Royal Army Chaplains' Department, Queen Alexandra's Royal Army Nursing Corps and the Women's Royal Army Corps are not included in this list. The seniorities of these officers are shown in their Corps and Regimental lists.

3. Where officers of the same rank have been gazetted to that rank with the same date their precedence is determined by the date of their next lower rank, in accordance with Queen's Regulations 1961, para. 272 (a).

4. Officers names in the Gradation list are not indexed. They may be found by referring to the seniority date shown in the corps and Regimental lists. A separate Gradation List of officers of the Royal Marines is included.

Royal Armoured Corps and Infantry

5. The badges, devices, distinctions and mottoes borne on Standards, Guidons and Regimental Colours are shown after the title of regiments, the "centre" badge being printed in bold type. In the case of Corps and Regiments which do not bear Standards, Guidons or Colours, the badges etc. shown after their titles are the cap badge or shoulder belt badge.

6. The honorary distinctions and battle honours awarded to regiments of the Royal Armoured Corps in commemoration of their services, including former regiments which have been amalgamated, are listed immediately following the Corps nominal roll. Those of Infantry regiments are listed on the Infantry regimental pages. Notes on amalgamated Infantry regiments follow the divisional rolls.

7. The honorary distinctions and battle honours printed in bold type are borne on the Standards, Guidons or Colours of existing regiments or, in the case of regiments having no Standards, Guidons or Colours, on their appointments. Such battle honours of the Great War and Second World War are borne on the Queen's Colour, the remaining battle honours shown in bold type being borne on the Regimental Colour. Foot Guards bear all battle honours shown in bold type on the Queen's and Regimental Colours.

8. The figures in brackets after the title of Infantry regiments denote the former regimental districts to which the regiments belonged.

9. Symbols, Degrees and Professional Qualifications. All symbols and degrees are shown except that honorary degrees are shown only in respect of General officers. The number of professional qualifications shown for any officer is limited to two. Symbols, degrees and professional qualifications are not shown in the Gradation list in respect of officers below the rank of Colonel.

10. Chartered Engineers. Members of certain Engineering Institutions have been granted the use of the title "Chartered Engineer" (C.Eng.). The members concerned are those entitled to the following brief titles: F.I.C.E., M.I.C.E., F.I.Mech.E., M.I.Mech.E., F.I.E.E., M.I.E.E., F.I.Prod.E., M.I.Prod.E., F.I.E.R.E., M.I.E.R.E. In this publication the C.Eng. has been omitted in all cases, for reasons of space, but should be understood to be inserted as follows:—Capt. A. B. Smith, B.Sc., C.Eng., M.I.Mech.E.

11. Indian Army Associations. A list of addresses of secretaries or representatives of associations connected with the Indian Army (pre 1947) and Auxiliary Force (India) is maintained at the National Army Museum, the official Museum for the Indian Army. Correspondence should be addressed to:—

The Director, National Army Museum, Royal Hospital Road, Chelsea, S.W.3. (Tel.: 01-730 3477).

12. Communications on officers' personal entries in this List should be addressed to the Ministry of Defence. AODO, Stanmore, Middlesex, HA7 4PZ. Communications from officers about their personal entries should be sent through officers commanding units or establishments. Officers who succeed to peerages, baronetcies or courtesy titles or who change their names are to notify the Ministry of Defence, AODO, Stanmore, so that official records, and the Army List, may be corrected.

The Army Benevolent Fund

G BLOCK, DUKE OF YORK'S HEADQUARTERS, CHELSEA, LONDON, S.W.3.

(Registered under the War Charities Act, 1940).

PATRON :

HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN

President :

Field-Marshal Sir GEOFFREY BAKER, G.C.B., C.M.G., C.B.E., M.C.

The object of the Fund is to assist to the fullest extent possible in the provision of financial support to Corps, Regimental and other Charitable Organisations which directly or indirectly benefit Service and ex-Service men and women and their dependants. Since its inception in September 1944 the Fund has made grants to these organisations amounting to over £4,500,000 and the calls on the Fund are heavier than ever.

Donations, which cannot be too large or too small, may be paid into any bank in Great Britain or Northern Ireland for credit of the Fund, or sent to the above address.

The Star & Garter Home for Disabled Sailors, Soldiers & Airmen, Richmond, Surrey

Patron: HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN

Chairman of Governors: Marshal of the Royal Air Force Sir John Slessor, G.C.B., D.S.O., M.C.

The Home stands on the site on Richmond Hill of the old Star and Garter Hotel, famous for 200 years, which early in the First World War, with the generous help of the Chartered Auctioneers' and Estate Agents' Institute, was converted for the care of men seriously wounded.

When the War ended a new Home was built, the funds for this being largely subscribed by the women of Britain and the Commonwealth, whose special War Memorial it is. The new building was opened by King George V and Queen Mary in 1924.

The Home provides happy and permanent accommodation for disabled ex-Servicemen and gives them the best possible medical treatment. It accommodates 200 patients with over 100 men on the waiting list. A few of the patients are veterans of the Boer War, two-thirds served in World War I and the remainder served subsequently, a large number in World War II.

It is an independent charity and not part of the National Health Service. Rising costs over the years have steadily widened the gap between expenditure and reliable income. An average of nearly £30,000 is required each year to bridge this gap.

Financial help is needed to enable the Home to continue as its founders would have wished. Donations would be gratefully received by The Commandant at The Star and Garter Home, Richmond, Surrey. Telephone: 01-940 3314.

KING EDWARD VII'S HOSPITAL FOR OFFICERS

SISTER AGNES—FOUNDER

Incorporated by Royal Charter

BEAUMONT HOUSE, BEAUMONT STREET LONDON, W.1.

This Hospital, founded by Sister Agnes (Miss Agnes Keyser) in 1899 in her own house, 17 Grosvenor Crescent, was destroyed by enemy action in January 1941, and the present building, Beaumont House, Beaumont Street, London, W.1, was opened in 1948 by Her Majesty Queen Mary. In 1968/69 Beaumont House was enlarged and the Hospital nearly doubled in size.

All officers of the three Services (including women officers) serving and retired, who have held regular or temporary commissions, their wives and widows, are eligible for admission. The Hospital has both private rooms and small wards.

The Council has as its object the provision of the best medical and surgical facilities at the lowest possible cost. Serving officers are entitled to free nursing and maintenance in the shared rooms. Otherwise patients are asked to pay at the rate of £42 a week for a private room or £28 a week for a shared room or a ward bed. These charges do not include professional fees but the ability of the patient to pay is always considered and there is a generously administered Samaritan Fund for those in straitened circumstances. Where, however, through insurance or because he can afford it, a patient can pay a sum nearer to the actual cost to the Hospital of his maintenance, now £82 a week, this is much appreciated.

The hospital has its own Consultant Staff, whose fees are a matter for personal arrangement between the patient and Consultant concerned. It is necessary for all patients to be placed by their general practitioners (who may still continue to attend them) in the care of a member of the Hospital's Consultant Staff, a list of whom will be sent to the patient's doctor on application. The Hospital has its own Resident Medical Officers, X-ray, Pathology and Physiotherapy Departments.

Whilst it is not necessary to subscribe in order to use the Hospital, Sister Agnes's is outside the National Health Service and therefore entirely dependent on voluntary aid. Subscriptions, donations and covenants are the mainstay of our income and detailed information can be obtained from the Appeals Secretary, Air Chief Marshal Sir Edmund Hudleston, G.C.B., 6 Buckingham Place, London, S.W.1.

The Home was founded in 1851, in memory of Field Marshal H. R. H. Adolphus Frederick, Duke of Cambridge, K.G., to provide a home for widows of N.C.O.s and Privates of the Regular Army. If vacancies permit, it is now available for widows of Non-Regulars who served in one of the Great Wars and widows of Officers who spent most of their service in the Ranks.

There is accommodation for 30 widows in the Home. Each widow has a furnished bed-sitting room with electric fire and boiling ring. The rooms are centrally heated and have fitted basins. In addition there are sick wards with trained nurses in charge.

The Committee urgently appeal for subscriptions.

await a word from you

A word of encouragement and a token of help —needed, now, by British Ex-Servicemen who have sacrificed a full life. Many of them are completely unable to help themselves. Money is urgently needed to help these men conquer their handicap—money to equip and maintain homes in which they can be given convalescence, or care and comfort in their old age. BLESMA is not aided by the State. Will you help?

Donations or legacies should be made to:—

Belief in their ability to earn their own living will go a long way to restore to the war-blinded their cherished sense of independence. St. Dunstan's teaches war-blinded Servicemen and women skill in many crafts and professions, and the high cost of their training and welfare is met entirely by voluntary funds. Please think of St. Dunstan's when legacies are being discussed.

St. Dunstan's is not a hospital in the sense of the National Health Service.
